

Domain model

Sabina Rosendahl

September 14, 2015

1

For this workshop I decided to make two domain models, one modeling management of boats and berths and the other modeling the calendar management. I also decided to not include the authenticate use case and instead only include authenticated users (member, secretary) in my models since I considered it to be too trivial.

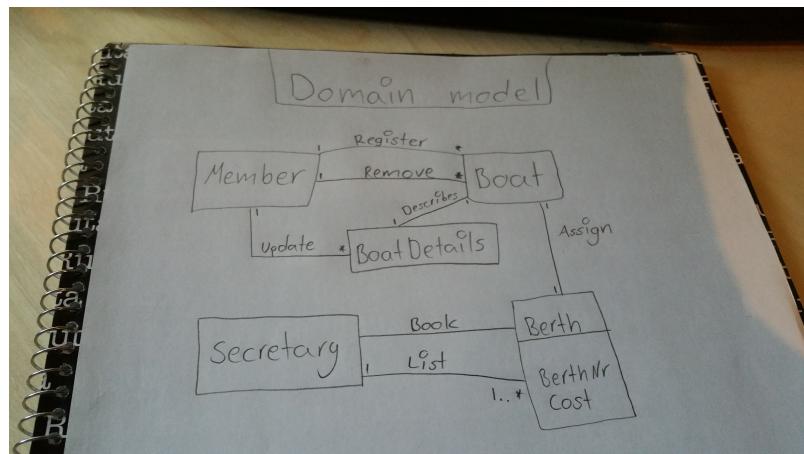

Figure 1: Boat and berth management.

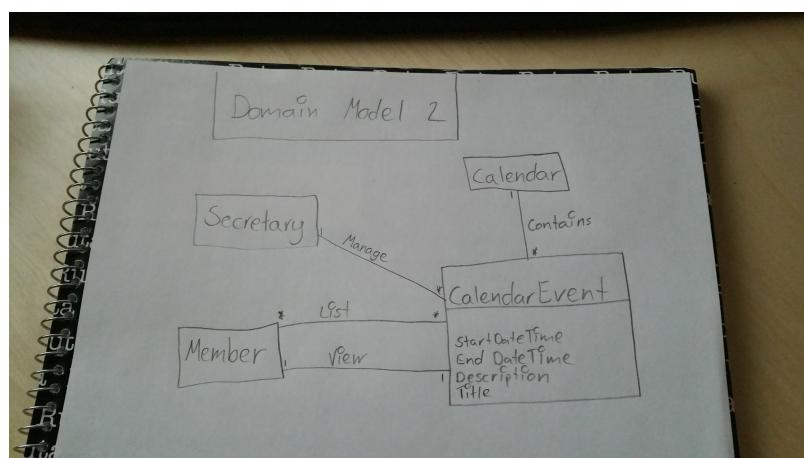

Figure 2: Calendar management.